Registration Policies

A Welcoming Environment - Annmarie Garden is committed to connecting people to art and nature. Through a variety of engaging classes and workshops, the Studio School opens up opportunities for creativity, collaboration, and reflection. The School seeks to provide an open and welcoming atmosphere for all ages and abilities. No student will be denied admission to the School on the basis of race, sex, or ethnic origin.

Registration Deadline - full tuition payment must be made one week before the first class is scheduled to meet. There are no refunds after the registration deadline.

Late Registration Fee - a late fee of $10 will be charged to anyone registering for a class after the registration deadline.

Refunds - tuition is refundable, minus a processing fee of $10 for each class dropped, only if written notification of the withdrawal is made before the registration deadline. No refunds will be made after this time. Failure to attend classes will not be regarded as an official notice of withdrawal. Withdrawals due to illness or family emergency will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Cancellations - classes are cancelled when enrollment minimums are not reached. Full tuition will be refunded within the following three weeks. These cancellations may be made at the last moment and students are notified by telephone or email. Annmarie Garden reserves the right to change instructors, class structure, or to discontinue any class without incurring obligations.

Age requirements - in order to register for adult classes, students must be 18 years of age. Younger students may petition the Director of Annmarie Garden for permission to enroll in an adult class or workshop. No one, including children of students, is allowed in the studios during class unless they are enrollees or have visitor permission from the Director of Annmarie Garden.

Class/Workshop Supply List – where applicable, you will receive a supply list with your confirmation of enrollment. Please come to the first class or workshop prepared to work.

Code of Conduct - In order to provide students, members, visitors and staff with a safe and supportive educational environment, Annmarie Garden reserves the right to refuse to retain any student exhibiting disruptive or unacceptable behavior in any course at any time without incurring obligations.

Membership – Members enjoy discounts on all classes and workshops. Please consider becoming a member - your contributions help support Annmarie Garden's operations and programs.

large painting on canvas. Various games and
activities will encourage students to re-think
their definition of art and encourage them to develop their own personal style. After lunch,
the students will work as a group to design and
paint a giant mural which will be exhibited at Annmarie Garden. Each student comes away
with their own large-scale painting.

ECO-ART Camp

Grades 1-3
March 29- April 2
9 am - 12 pm (half-day camp)
Members/ Non-members -- $75/85
Instructor: Joanne Paskoff

In this camp, students will be introduced to artistic activities that contribute to a healthier world. Eco-art projects and art from recycled materials will help young minds learn to think creatively about the world around them.
Students come away with a new project each day.

SCHOOL'S OUT!

ART'S IN!

When school's are closed,
chase away boredom with
a fun art class or day camp
at Annmarie Garden!

DIVE IN TO A DAY-LONG ART CLASS!

All classes are from 9am-4pm, for grades 3-5 only.
Members/ Non-members-- $50/55 per student.
Each student comes away with fun art projects
based on the theme for the day.

Upcoming classes include:

February 15 -- Chinese New Year Fun!
Tigers and Dragons

Come Celebrate the Chinese New Year of The Tiger. At New Year, people in China dance in the street with huge paper and cloth dragons. We will make our own puppet dragons to dance around the garden. To celebrate the year of the Tiger will make some lovely painted Tigers. It will be a morning of art culture and fun.

April 5-- WELCOME Spring!

Chase away the winter blues with fun, colorful art projects to prepare us for springtime! Learn interesting new techniques and create artful
additions for your home and your yard!

April 19-- Trees Are Terrific, Branching Out and Playing in the Garden

Let's celebrate Arbor Day by learning about trees!
We will take a walk on the garden trail and find a tree to adopt for the day. We will imagine and sketch this tree in all seasons. We will discuss trees of all kinds and snack on some food given to us by trees.
Make a tree sculpture to remind you of your day!

SPRING BREAK CAMPS!

Go Big! Go Bold! Mural Camp

Grades 4-6
March 29-31
9am – 4pm
Members/ Non-members -- $100/110

Students will learn to “think big” and take their painting skills to the next level as they create a large painting on canvas. Various games and
activities will encourage students to re-think
their definition of art and encourage them to develop their own personal style. After lunch,
the students will work as a group to design and
paint a giant mural which will be exhibited at Annmarie Garden. Each student comes away
with their own large-scale painting.
