About Studio School Summer Camps:

Camp Hours -- All camps start promptly at 9 am and run until 4:00 pm. Students may arrive at 8:45 am and must be picked up by 4:30 pm.

What to Bring -- Students should bring a bagged lunch. Some camps require a small lab fee, payable to the instructor on the first day of camp. Students will not be permitted to use cell phones, iPods, or digital cameras during class instruction time. Annmarie Garden does not assume responsibility for student belongings.

Dress Code -- Students should dress for the weather, as all camps may move outdoors for portions of the instruction. Students should wear old clothing and shoes that may be stained by paint. AMG recommends old T-shirts, shorts, flip-flops, and sun-screen for all campers.

Special Needs/ Health Concerns -- Parents should contact the garden office if their child has special needs or health risks. Indicate this on the registration form and staff will follow up with a phone call in an effort to accommodate all needs. If a child requires medication doses during the time of the camp, parents must submit a pre-measured dose with child's name and time of administration clearly labeled on the container.

Emergency Contact Information-- Upon registration, parents will be asked to complete an emergency contact form. Camp registration is considered incomplete until the completed form is received in the Garden office.

Code of Conduct -- In order to provide students, members, visitors and staff with a safe and supportive educational environment, Annmarie Garden reserves the right to refuse to retain any student exhibiting disruptive or unacceptable behavior in any course at any time without incurring obligations.

For more information, contact Jaimie Jeffrey at the Garden office, 410.326.4640.
