- The arts bolster self-confidence
- Creative activities for the elderly provide an opportunity for therapeutic self-expression and improve self-esteem
- The arts allow all ages to embrace their imaginations and socialize and communicate with others

Registration Policies

A Welcoming Environment - Annmarie Garden is committed to connecting people to art and nature. Through a variety of engaging classes and workshops, the Studio School opens up opportunities for creativity, collaboration, and reflection. The School seeks to provide an open and welcoming atmosphere for all ages and abilities. No student will be denied admission to the School on the basis of race, sex, or ethnic origin.

Registration Deadline - full tuition payment must be made one week before the first class is scheduled to meet. There are no refunds after the registration deadline.

Late Registration Fee - a late fee of $10 will be charged to anyone registering for a class after the registration deadline.

Refunds - tuition is refundable, minus a processing fee of $10 for each class dropped, only if written notification of the withdrawal is made before the registration deadline. No refunds will be made after this time. Failure to attend classes will not be regarded as an official notice of withdrawal. Withdrawals due to illness or family emergency will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Cancellations - classes are cancelled when enrollment minimums are not reached. Full tuition will be refunded within the following three weeks. These cancellations may be made at the last moment and students are notified by telephone or email. Annmarie Garden reserves the right to change instructors, class structure, or to discontinue any class without incurring obligations.

Age requirements - in order to register for adult classes, students must be 18 years of age. Younger students may petition the Director of Annmarie Garden for permission to enroll in an adult class or workshop. No one, including children of students, is allowed in the studios during class unless they are enrollees or have visitor permission from the Director of Annmarie Garden.

Class/Workshop Supply List – where applicable, you will receive a supply list with your confirmation of enrollment. Please come to the first class or workshop prepared to work.

Code of Conduct - In order to provide students, members, visitors and staff with a safe and supportive educational environment, Annmarie Garden reserves the right to refuse to retain any student exhibiting disruptive or unacceptable behavior in any course at any time without incurring obligations.

Membership – Members enjoy discounts on all classes and workshops. Please consider becoming a member - your contributions help support Annmarie Garden's operations and programs.

Special Needs and Accessibility – if you need to request an accommodation for a student with a disability, please call the Garden office at 410.326.4640.

WEEK-LONG FUN FOR SCHOOL-AGED KIDS!

Modern Art Madness

Ages 5-8

August 4-8, 9am - 5pm

Member/Non-member-- $150/165

Instructors: Robyn Strayer and Beth Beighley

Discover modern art masterpieces and create art in the style of famous modern artists. Students will learn about a different artist each day. After lunch, students will put their painting skills into action....real action! Throw it, bounce it, roll it, how many ways can we make a painting? Each student comes away with a variety of colorfully expressive paintings.

Playtime Art: Dolls & Storybooks

Ages 5-8

August 4-8, 9am - 5pm

Member/Non-member-- $150/165

Instructors: Beth Beighley and Marianne Estornell

Explore the world of art dolls and art books as we make paper dolls, wire dolls, clay dolls, and more. Students will also design storybooks by re-inventing an old one using painting, drawing, and collage techniques. Each child comes away with one storybook and several different dolls.

Young da Vincis: Sketch Journals

Ages 7-10 or 11-14 (specify age group)

July 28 - August 1, 9am - 5pm

Member/Non-member-- $150/165

Instructors: Vanessa Vizcarrondo and Jeannie Monico

This class encourages students to try their hands at nature journaling which was utilized by famous minds such as Leonardo da Vinci. Explore objects in nature while recording observations in sketch journals. Various activities help to develop drawing and writing skills. Students will be encouraged to display both drawings and writings about the objects they encounter.

One Body, One World

Ages 5-8

July 28 - August 1, 9am - 5pm

Member/Non-member-- $150/165

Instructors: Joanne Paskoff and Erin Facciolo

In this camp, students will be introduced to creative activities that contribute to a healthier world. Morning yoga, eco-art projects, team-building games, and art from recycled materials will help young minds learn to grow up in a creative, happier, healthier place. Students come away with two new projects each day.

Mad Hatter's Throne

Ages 9-12

July 21-25, 9am - 5pm

Member/ Non-member-- $165/175

Materials Fee: $20

Instructor: Robyn Strayer

Throw it, stomp it, whack a tree!

Make a hat that's fit for thee!

Kids will use water, wool, and wild imagination as they learn wet felting techniques to make a uniquely mad hat! In the afternoon, they will build their own bench and learn tile mosaic techniques to give their thrones a quirky and colorful touch! Each student comes away with a whimsical hat and colorful bench.

Rock Paper Scissors

Ages 9-12

July 14-18, 9am - 5pm

Member/ Non-member-- $150/165

Instructor: Beth Beighley

Create art by using rock, paper, and scissors! Make sculpture and garden art from rocks and clay. Learn to make paper from scratch, and design and build your own book. Students come away with a different finished artwork everyday!

WEEK-LONG FUN FOR SCHOOL-AGED KIDS!

Accessorize, Accessorize

Ages 9- 14

June 23-27, 9am - 5pm

Member/ Non-member-- $150/165

Materials Fee: $25

Instructor: Robyn Strayer

Create beads, belts, bags, and bangles to accessorize in with style. Learn techniques in polymer clay for designing vivid beads and jewelry. Complete your look by turning colorful wool into felted bags perfect for an iPod or cell phone.

Go BIG! Go BOLD!

Ages 11 - 15

August 11-14, 9am - 5pm

Member/ Non-member-- $150/165

Instructor: Norma Levally

In the morning, students will learn to take their art to the next level as they learn to design and implement a large scale painting on canvas. Various games and activities will encourage students to re-think their definition of art and encourage them to develop their own personal style. After lunch, the students will work as a group to design and paint a giant mural which will be exhibited at Annmarie Garden. Each student comes away with their own large-scale painting.

Not JUST a Lemonade Stand

Ages 9-12

July 21-25, 9am - 5pm

Member/ Non-member-- $165/175

Instructor: Fritzie Seidler

Design, build, and decorate a playful lemonade stand with wood and recycled materials. Make mosaic benches for seating around your lemonade stand. Class members will use this lemonade stand to sell lemonade at Annmarie Garden on Saturday, July 26th and at the Halloween event on October 25th. Final proceeds will be donated to a charity of the class's choice. An excellent lesson in social responsibility as well as art and design. All students come away with a mosaic bench and the satisfaction of knowing their skills were used to help a worthwhile cause.

About Studio School Summer Camps:

Camp Hours -- All camps start promptly at 9 am and run until 4:30 pm. Students may arrive at 8:45am and must be picked up by 5pm.

What to Bring -- Students should bring a bagged lunch. Some camps require a small lab fee, payable to the instructor on the first day of camp. Students will not be permitted to use cell phones, iPods, or digital cameras during class instruction time. Annmarie Garden does not assume responsibility for student belongings.

Dress Code -- Students should dress for the weather, as all camps may move outdoors for portions of the instruction. Students should wear old clothing and shoes that may be stained by paint. AMG recommends old T-shirts, shorts, and flip-flops for all campers.

Special Needs/ Health Concerns -- Parents should contact the garden office if their child has special needs or health risks. Indicate this on the registration form and staff will follow up with a phone call in an effort to accommodate all needs. If a child requires medication doses during the time of the camp, parents must submit a pre-measured dose with child's name and time of administration clearly labeled on the container.

Emergency Contact Information-- Upon registration, parents will be asked to complete an emergency contact form. Camp registration is considered incomplete until the completed form is received in the Garden office.

Code of Conduct -- In order to provide students, members, visitors and staff with a safe and supportive educational environment, Annmarie Garden reserves the right to refuse to retain any student exhibiting disruptive or unacceptable behavior in any course at any time without incurring obligations.

For more information, contact Jaimie Jeffrey at the Garden office, 410.326.4640.
