WELCOME to Annmarie Garden's Studio School – a new endeavor presenting creative offerings for all ages and abilities! At the Studio School, you will find classes and workshops offered in a relaxed and friendly arts environment that will inform and challenge the beginning or experienced student. Our classes represent a range of subjects, media, and techniques and are taught by skilled practicing artists and educators who will help you define and work towards your own artistic goals. Come to the Studio School and let our studios, talented and supportive faculty, and beautiful setting enrich your life!

DID YOU KNOW?

- The arts teach kids to be more tolerant and open
- The arts bolster self-confidence
- Creative activities for the elderly provide an opportunity for therapeutic self-expression and improve self-esteem
- The arts allow all ages to embrace their imaginations and socialize and communicate with others

Registration Policies

A Welcoming Environment - Annmarie Garden is committed to connecting people to art and nature. Through a variety of engaging classes and workshops, the Studio School opens up opportunities for creativity, collaboration, and reflection. The School seeks to provide an open and welcoming atmosphere for all ages and abilities. No student will be denied admission to the School on the basis of race, sex, or ethnic origin.

Registration Deadline - full tuition payment must be made one week before the first class is scheduled to meet. There are no refunds after the registration deadline.

Late Registration Fee - a late fee of $10 will be charged to anyone registering for a class after the registration deadline.

Refunds - tuition is refundable, minus a processing fee of $10 for each class dropped, only if written notification of the withdrawal is made before the registration deadline. No refunds will be made after this time. Failure to attend classes will not be regarded as an official notice of withdrawal. Withdrawals due to illness or family emergency will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Cancellations - classes are cancelled when enrollment minimums are not reached. Full tuition will be refunded within the following three weeks. These cancellations may be made at the last moment and students are notified by telephone or email. Annmarie Garden reserves the right to change instructors, class structure, or to discontinue any class without incurring obligations.

Inclement Weather—Classes may be canceled due to inclement weather. Studio School classes follow the Calvert County Public School system. When Schools are closed, the Studio School closes as well.

Age requirements - in order to register for adult classes, students must be 18 years of age. Younger students may petition the Director of Annmarie Garden for permission to enroll in an adult class or workshop. No one, including children of students, is allowed in the studios during class unless they are enrollees or have visitor permission from the Director of Annmarie Garden.

Class/Workshop Supply List – where applicable, you will receive a supply list with your confirmation of enrollment. Please come to the first class or workshop prepared to work.

Code of Conduct - In order to provide students, members, visitors and staff with a safe and supportive educational environment, Annmarie Garden reserves the right to refuse to retain any student exhibiting disruptive or unacceptable behavior in any course at any time without incurring obligations.

Membership – Members enjoy discounts on all classes and workshops. Please consider becoming a member - your contributions help support Annmarie Garden's operations and programs.

Special Needs and Accessibility – if you need to request an accommodation for a student with a disability, please call the Garden office at 410.326.4640.
